HYMNS OF THE DAY*Tone 4. Troparion of the Resurrection

WHEN the women disciples of the Lord * learned from the angel the joyous message of Thy Resurrection, * they cast away the ancestral curse * and elatedly told the apostles: * “Death is overthrown! * Christ God is risen, // granting the world great mercy!”

Tone 4. Troparion of the Feast

YOUR Nativity, O Christ our God, * has shone to the world the light of wisdom! * For by it, those who worshipped the stars, * were taught by a star to adore You, * the Sun of Righteousness, * and to know You, the Orient from on high. // O Lord, glory to You!

Tone 2. Troparion of the Righteous Ones

PROCLAIM the wonder, O Joseph, * to David, the ancestor of God; * you have seen a Virgin great with child; * and you gave glory with the shepherds; * you worshipped with the Magi, * and received the news from the Angel. // Pray to Christ God to save our souls!

Glory. Tone 3. Kontakion of the Righteous Ones

TODAY godly David is filled with joy; * Joseph and James offer praise. * The glorious crown of their kinship with Christ fills them with great joy. * They sing praises to the One ineffably born on earth, // and they cry out: “O Compassionate One, save those who honor You!”

Both now. Tone 3. Kontakion of Feast

TODAY the Virgin gives birth to the Transcendent One, * and the earth offers a cave to the Unapproachable One! * Angels with shepherds glorify Him! * The Wise Men journey with the star, // since for our sake the eternal God was born as a little Child!

PROKEIMENON

In the fourth tone: O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! / In wisdom hast Thou made them all!

℣ Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, Thou art very great!

In the fourth tone: God is wonderful in His saints, / the God of Israel.

OLD TESTAMENTThe Reading is from the Second Book of Kingdoms (2 Samuel) (5:1-10)

At that time, all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said to him, “Indeed we are your bone and your flesh. In time past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in, and the Lord said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over Israel.’” Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and at Hebron King David made a covenant with them before the Lord. And they anointed David king over all Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. For seven years and six months, he reigned over Judah while in Hebron, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. And David and his men marched toward Jerusalem to the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, to those who said to David, “You shall not be welcomed here, for the blind and the lame will resist you saying, ‘David, do not enter here.’” Nevertheless, David took the stronghold of Zion, the City of David. Now David said on that day, “Everyone who attacks the Jebusites, let him strike with the dagger both the lame and the blind and those who hate the life of David.” Therefore they say, “The blind and the lame shall not come into the house of the Lord.” Then David dwelt in the stronghold, and it was called the City of David. And he built the city itself round about the citadel, and he built his own house. David continued forward in this manner and was held in high regard, for the Lord Almighty was with him.

EPISTLE

The Reading is from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians (1:11-19)

Brethren, I make known to you that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ. For you have heard of my former conduct in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God beyond measure and tried to destroy it. And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother’s womb and called me through His grace, to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and remained with him fifteen days. But I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord’s brother.

Alleluia, Tone 4:

- ℣ Go forth, proper and reign, for the sake of meekness, righteousness, and truth!
- ℣ For Thou lovest righteousness and dost hate iniquity.
- ℣ Remember, O Lord, David and all his meekness!

GOSPEL

The Reading is from the Holy Gospel According to St. Matthew (2:13-23)

When the wise men had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.” When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt, and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called My Son.” Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying: "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted, because they are no more." Now when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the young Child's life are dead." Then he arose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a dream, he turned aside into the region of Galilee. And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene.

COMMUNION HYMN

℣ O taste and see that the Lord is good.

Pray
the News

"As I look at the icons in the church--Your Holy Icon, my Lord, that of Your Most-pure Mother, those of the holy angels and archangels, and the faces of the saints, adorned, resplendent with gold and silver--I think to myself how You have honored and adorned our nature, O Creator and Provider of all! Glory to You for having so honored, enlightened, and raised our nature!"

Parish News & Announcements

Help Us Grow Into the New Year!

We are deeply grateful for the generosity of our parish family. Thanks to our generous donors, we successfully met our both our matching goal and $100k goal for our Capital Fund in 2025. ## Are you visiting? Welcome to St. Mary's!

We're delighted that you've joined us! Please feel free to watch, participate, or ask the person next to you if you have any questions. Check out the Connections Corner in the fellowship hall to learn more about us or Orthodoxy, to pick up a copy of our newsletter and ministry brochure, or to just meet a few friendly faces!

We try to avoid entering or exiting the nave during readings, processions, or the sermon. Please note that to receive Holy Communion in our church, one must be baptized Orthodox, recently-confessed, and at peace with one's fellows. At the end of the service, everyone is welcome to come up to kiss the Cross, greet the priest, and receive blessed bread.

Please join us for fellowship hour downstairs in the fellowship hall after liturgy. We'd love to meet you!
